

Yuriri Naka as Noriko A Sari, who works as an assistant agent, is friends with Kieran, brother of Jordan. Her humorous and mischievous comments changes the speed of the serious thriller in a good way.

Born in Tokyo, Japan. Moves to London at the age of 19, to study acting at Rose Bruford Collage. Currently based in London. Fluent in both English and Japanese and has performed in both languages. 47 RONIN, JUKAI 樹海, Speed Racer

Teo Yoo as Jae Yeon, whose father is the owner of the Manchester Football club, struggles to show his power and worth to the world. His actions eventually becomes essential to the thriller side of the story.

Born in Cologne, Germany. Began acting when studying at the Lee Strasberg Theater and Film Institute, NY at the age of 20. He has continued his studies in an intensive course at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, London. After having acted in various independent films and theater productions in New York and Berlin. Money Game, Leto.