

Comments from Executives

NAVER Corporation CEO Soo-yeon Choi

“note is a platform where diverse genres and the individuality of over ten million users come together. As the value of content increases in the AI era, note is a strong partner for NAVER. Together, we will leverage the synergies between our platforms and content assets to drive innovation and enhance global competitiveness.”

Note Inc. CEO Sadaaki Kato

“We are honored to partner with NAVER, a company that leads Korea’s creative and technological landscape. The most important role of a platform is to help creators bring their work to the world. Through this collaboration, we can build a distribution network that carries creators’ works from Japan and Asia to audiences worldwide. Together, we aim to pioneer new ways of creating, sharing, and sustaining creative activity.”